YOU'VE EARNED IT.

Federal employees are fortunate to still have coverage under FEHB when they retire. So why think about Medicare?

Well, most plans offered through FEHB are plans that require cost sharing. Cost sharing means you might pay deductibles, coinsurance and copays when you visit health care providers. And we all know this can add up.

So how can you save money?

Signing up for Medicare might just be your answer. With Medicare Parts A and B, your FEHB plan may lower your costs by waiving certain deductibles or coinsurance. Additionally, enrolling in the Aetna Medicare Advantage PPO with an extended service area (ESA), for RCBP members, allows you to receive a Part B premium reduction of $900 per person, per year.

What's Medicare?

Medicare is a federal health insurance program for people age 65 and older, as well as some people under age 65 (with disabilities) and people with end-stage renal disease (kidney failure).

Get a complete Medicare Advantage plan without having to suspend your FEHB coverage.

Enrolling in the Aetna Medicare Advantage for RCBP offers more thorough coverage and programs to help you reach your health goals.

Understanding the Parts of Medicare

At first glance, Medicare may seem like a lot to figure out, especially since you keep your FEHB coverage after you retire. But think of it this way—your FEHB plan has deductibles and coinsurance, which you pay out of pocket. Original Medicare does too.

But with Aetna Medicare Advantage for RCBP, your coinsurance and deductibles could be lowered to $0 for most medical expenses. When you're enrolled in Original Medicare, that's how these plans work. It's possible to decrease your out-of-pocket medical expenses as well as your monthly Part B premiums.

So, let's close the loop on Medicare with a brief description of its parts. Keep in mind, this does not consider your FEHB plan.

MEDICARE PART A = Hospital insurance

Covers most in-patient medical expenses like hospital stays and home health care. Generally, no premium is required. But with Original Medicare there is a deductible before any hospitalization costs are covered.

MEDICARE PART B = Medical insurance

Covers doctor visits, durable medical equipment, outpatient procedures and lab services. Most people pay a monthly premium and a deductible before Medicare covers services. After your deductible is met, you typically pay 20% of the Medicare-approved amount for most doctor services.

ORIGINAL MEDICARE = Part A + Part B

Together, both parts provide coverage in and out of the hospital.

MEDICARE PART C = Medicare Advantage

It's offered by private insurance companies and approved by Medicare. It may offer more benefits at a lower cost than Original Medicare. You must sign up for Part A and Part B before enrolling in Medicare Part C.

MEDICARE PART D = Prescription Drug Plan

It's offered by private insurance companies to help pay prescription drug costs. It's included in some Medicare Advantage plans or can be added to Original Medicare coverage.

Aetna Medicare Advantage for RCBP can help lower your out-of-pocket costs with $0 deductibles and coinsurance, reductions in Part B premiums, and prescription drug copays as low as $0.

Note: This chart assumes Medicare Parts A and B are primary and that covered services are provided by doctors and facilities that participate with Medicare. RCBP does not pay 100% when services are provided by a doctor under a private contract that provides for direct billing and no Medicare coverage. This is also a summary of Medicare features. What do I need to know about Medicare enrollment?

There are several specific periods that allow you to enroll in Original Medicare. These periods consider different circumstances. The first two are without penalty. The third would be considered late-enrollment which could increase your costs significantly.

1. Initial Enrollment Period (IEP)

For most people, the Medicare enrollment period opens three months before the month you turn 65 and ends three months after your birthday month. You can apply online at SocialSecurity.gov or enroll at your local Social Security office.

2. Special Enrollment Period (SEP)

After your IEP ends, you may still sign up for Medicare if you meet the criteria for a Special Enrollment Period.

If you are still working and you're covered under a group health plan (usually through your employer), you have an 8-month SEP to sign up. This SEP begins with whichever comes first:

- The month after your employment ends
- The month after the group health plan insurance ends

Usually, you don't pay a late enrollment penalty if you sign up during a SEP.

3. General Enrollment Period (GEP)

Between January 1 and March 31, each year, Original Medicare offers a GEP.

You can sign up during the GEP any year if both are true:

- You didn't sign up when you were first eligible (during your IEP)
- You aren't eligible for a SEP

Medicare Part B late enrollment penalty

If you don't sign up for Part B when you're first eligible, your monthly premium may go up 10% for each 12-month period you were eligible but didn't sign up. In most cases, you'll have to pay this penalty for as long as you have Part B. And the penalty increases the longer you go without Part B coverage.

Call the Aetna Retiree Solutions service center:

You'll need to provide the following:

If your income is above a certain limit, you may be required to pay an Income Related Monthly Adjustment Amount, or IRMAA, to the government. This is in addition to the standard premium amount.

Since Aetna is not responsible for IRMAA please see the chart provided by Medicare which lists extra costs by income at: Medicare.gov/drug-coverage-part-d/costs-for-medicare-drug-coverage/monthly-premium-for-drug-plans and Medicare.gov/your-medicare-costs/part-b-costs

If you must pay an extra amount, Social Security, not your Medicare plan, will send you a letter telling you what that extra amount will be and how to pay it. The extra amount will be withheld from your Social Security, Railroad Retirement Board or Office of Personnel Management benefit check, no matter how you pay your plan premium.
